

Frequently Asked Questions

Why should someone enroll in the Correspondence Bible School program?

A Most Christians desire to learn more about God and His Word but are unsure of how to do this or where to start. The RHEMA Germany Correspondence Bible School program is designed to help you along this path. The goal of this course is to help a person grow and develop in the knowledge of God and to help them see how to apply God's Word in their everyday life.

Who should enroll in the Correspondence Bible School program?

A The RHEMA Germany Correspondence Bible School program is open to people of all ages and is particularly focused on people who do not feel called into full time ministry. People who are interested in receiving training for full time ministry should enroll as a student in RHEMA Bible Training Center.

Is there a schedule or time limit for completing the lessons?

A Each person can do the lessons of the Correspondence Bible School at their own pace. There is no time limit involved, you can choose how fast or how slow you complete the lessons.

How does the course and the lessons function?

A Each lesson is made up of either written or audio material and accompanying tests based on that material. Each lesson will have at least one review test and a final test. The purpose of the review test is to help the student evaluate their understanding of the material they have just studied. The final test is used to determine the students' grade for that lesson.

After I place my order, when do I receive my lessons?

A Orders are shipped after the complete payment for the lessons ordered and the shipping and processing fees are received. Allow at least a minimum of one week after you place your order and pay for it before your order will arrive.

Can I get a discount if I already have some of the books or other materials used for the lesson?

A No, each lesson is set up as a complete package and we do not allow discounts for people who already own lesson materials. All lessons are € 25,00 and will include the written or audio materials and tests.

Can I get licensed and ordained through the Correspondence Bible School program?

A No, a person who completes the Correspondence Bible School program will receive a certificate of completion but not a ministerial license. If a person is interested in being licensed and ordained they need to enroll in the two-year program of RHEMA Bible Training Center Germany.
